By rail

There are six main stations in Paris, all of which are central and link to the Métro underground system. Trains from Kings Cross (London) and mainland Europe arrive into Gare du Nord.

Up-to-date information on local transportation, schedules and prices is available at www.sncf.fr

For underground transportation you may wish to access www.ratp.fr

By air – Paris Charles De Gaulle airport

Taxis are available from outside the terminal. Alternatively you can take the regional express line RER B which links Paris-Charles de Gaulle to Paris and its suburbs.

By air – Paris Orly airport

Taxis are available from outside the terminal. RATP buses provide services to various destinations in Paris and the city limits.

By car

Parking spaces are available for our visitors and customers.
