Travelling by rail, by air and by car

By rail

Most long-distance services run by the Spanish state railway company RENFE leave from Barcelona-Sants station, easily reached by subway. RENFE operates the high-speed service AVE (Alta Velocidad) between Barcelona Sants station and Madrid via Zaragoza and Lleida.
Up-to-date information on local transportation, schedules and prices is available at www.renfe.es

By air – Barcelona airport

Taxis are available from outside the terminal. Alternatively you can take the bus. During daytime, bus 46 runs between Plaça Espanya and the airport every half hour. During night-time, N17 runs every 20 minutes between the airport and Plaça Catalunya, with several stops on the way, including Plaça d'Espanya and Plaça Universitat.

By car

Underground parking spaces are available for our visitors and customers.
