BOSCH

By rail

Madrid has an extensive railway network that enables access to the capital from all parts of Spain. Atocha and Chamartín are the two main railway stations as they receive short-haul, long-distance, high-speed and suburban trains. Chamartín also receives international arrivals from France and Portugal. Up-to-date information on local transportation, schedules and prices is available at www.renfe.es

By air – Barajas airport

Taxis are available from outside the terminal. Alternatively you can take the subway located at Terminals 2 and 4. Line 8 connects the airport with the city centre (Nuevos Ministerios). Get off there and take the line no. 10 towards 'Hospital del Norte'. Get off at 'La Moraleja'. You should spot our site as you exit the subway station. Up-to-date information on local transportation schedules and prices is available at www.metromadrid.es

By car

Underground parking spaces are available for our visitors and customers.
